

CIO Council Communications Subcommittee
September 29, 2004

The first meeting of the Communications Subcommittee was held Wednesday, September 29, 2004, at 10 am at the Iowa Utilities Board. Ron Pothast, Civil Rights; Don Dursky, Economic Development; Karen Hudson, Ethics and Campaign Disclosure; Julie Noland, Iowa Finance Authority; JoAnn Naples, Natural Resources; RJ Hellstern, Iowa Veterans Home; Darrell Fremont, DAS-ITE; and Margaret Munson, Iowa Utilities Board attended the meeting.

Topics discussed included:

- Communication tools – past, present, and future (Web site, listserv, email, meetings, discussion board, newsletter, etc.)
- How to get more people involved with the CIO Council and its activities
- Intranet versus Internet as a location for CIO Council information
- Cleanup of the existing CIO Council Web site

The next meeting is tentatively scheduled for Tuesday, October 12, at 10 am at the Iowa Finance Authority. Julie Noland will send out information scheduling the next meeting.

JoAnn Naples will ask someone from DNR's Web team to attend to talk about user focus.

The subcommittee intends to meet for two one-hour meetings in October before the CIO Council meeting on October 28.
